

Adoration Prompt for Children

Hi Jesus! It's me! I am so happy to be here with you tonight!
I praise you because you are so good. You, who created this world that we live in, you who gave us the beautiful sunshine today, you who made the mountains, and the oceans, and the beautiful lakes. You are so amazing! And you chose to be with me tonight. To let me love you, and let me adore you.

Now I want you to say in your mind and hearts what you praise him for.

Dear Jesus, I praise and adore you because- (allow for silent reflection ~30 seconds)

Jesus, sometimes I mess up. I don't do the things that I know I should do. Sometimes I hurt people with my words or my actions, and I am so sorry.

Now I want you to tell Jesus in your mind and hearts that you are sorry for the mistakes you have made and ask him for his forgiveness.

Dear Jesus, I am sorry for- (Silent Reflection)

My sweet Jesus, you are the giver of all good things. You told me that if I knock, you will open the door for me. I am knocking on your door tonight Jesus.

Now I want you to think about something you want the Lord to do in your life. Maybe you want his help in math class. Or maybe you want him to help you be nicer to your brother or sister. Maybe your grandma is sick and you want to ask him for her healing.

Dear Jesus, I want to ask this of you- (Silent Reflection)

Jesus, I know that there are so many blessings in my life. You have given me so many good things. I thank you for all that you have given me!

Now I want you to think about everything you are grateful for. Maybe it's your pet, your friends, your family, getting to play sports, or be on a team, or even that you get to be here tonight.

Dear Jesus, thank you for my many blessings! I especially want to thank you for- (Silent Reflection)

Remember, Jesus loves you so much that he wants to talk to you about everything! Go ahead and answer these next questions in your heart.
